

Pollinator Planting

Saturday, May 14 | 9:00 a.m. - Noon
Garlough Park
West St. Paul

Together with Great River Greening staff, volunteers will plant pollinator-friendly grasses and forbs on acres recently cleared of buckthorn.

Participants will also learn more about the large-scale restoration work taking place in both Garlough and Marthaler Park in West St. Paul.

All are welcome at this event, however, capacity is limited. Learn more and sign up today at www.greatrivergreening.org/events.
